

---

Configuration Integrity Review [1]

Periodically review the configuration data to verify and confirm the integrity of the current and historical configuration. Periodically review installed software against the policy for software usage to identify personal or unlicensed software or any software instances in excess of current license agreements. Report, act on and correct errors and deviations.

There are no PSGs published for this topic; however, the topic is under review for future PSGs

---

Source URL: <https://gta.georgia.gov/psg/book-page/configuration-integrity-review>